Forecast For The United Kingdom
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Wednesday 04 Aug 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Turning more widely unsettled.

This Evening and Tonight:
Showers mostly dying out across England and Wales, skies clearing for a time to allow a few fog patches to form. Some showery rain affecting Northern Ireland and western Scotland. Turning wet and windy in the far west later.

Thursday:
Bands of rain moving northeastwards across the UK, heavy in places. Turning somewhat brighter in the west later but with heavy, thundery downpours. Windy for many.

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Remaining unsettled with further showers and longer spells of rain. Some of these will be heavy and thundery, especially across the north. Breezy at times and still rather cool.
